THE CREATION OF COMPOSE

Embracing an honoured history of leading the hospitality sector through multiple decades of innovation, Bunzl McLaughlin has crafted the enclosed, Compose Chair Collection.

The name Compose was born out of a concept to create, allowing for the free-flowing expression of individuality to encompass the entirety of the hospitality industry.

Hosting a vast collection of characteristic chairs, the Compose Chair Collection allows you to accentuate the uniqueness of your venue, providing a tailor-made solution that offers a portfolio of furniture suitable for every occasion.

With an abundance of frame finishes and endless fabric finishes to choose from, your design truly is 'One of a Kind' and entirely unique to you.

Enclosed you will find an album of creations, each adapted to cover an array of backdrops. From chair creations built to accommodate a strictly corporate landscape, to wedding chairs that inexcusably demand a significant presence within any venue.

This is your cue to take the stage and make your concept a reality.

BANQUET LINE

SPECIFICALLY DESIGNED TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF TODAY'S CUSTOMER

BANQUET LINE

Introducing the Banquet Line range of Banqueting Chairs, a range of chairs specifically designed to meet the ever-changing requirements of today's customer.

This new concept in Banquet seating allows the customer to effectively design their own chair, right down to the profile of the chair frame. With almost 20 different frame colours to choose from and several hundred fabric finishes, it is now possible to customise your own chair to match either existing seating in your venue or, if going new, to match existing colour schemes in the function room. With a category of chair to match all budgets, there was never a better time to consider replacing your banqueting or function room chairs.

COMFORT LINE

Introducing the Comfort Line Range of Comfort Chairs

Over the last 12 months, we at Bunzl McLaughlin are regularly asked for a “really comfortable” Banqueting Chair. It soon became clear that such a product did not exist in the Irish market. As a result, Bunzl conducted market research and collaborated with their furniture manufacturer to introduce a range of 3 Comfort Chairs.

Why a range and not just one to suit all?

‘Comfort’ means different things to different people. For some, it means a more luxurious, deep foam seat. For others, it means lumber support built in to the chair back. Or it may simply mean a larger chair overall.

Each of the chairs in our Comfort Range have their own unique features, therefore appealing to a wider range of customers.

1. LUXE

Most Banqueting Chairs contain foam at about 50mm in depth. However, the standard foam depth in the Aluminium Banqueting Chair is 60mm.

Now take this Luxe Comfort Chair. At 80mm of foam depth, it incorporates the highest level of seat foam on any chair within the Irish market. In addition to this, the foam is moulded for added comfort.

2. MAX

The normal wooden seat base has been removed and instead replaced with a HDPE Plastic base. The effect of this is twofold: Firstly, the hardness you feel each time you sit on a seat with a wooden base has been eliminated. Secondly, the curved base allows for additional high-density foam to be packed into this space. As a result, increasing the comfort element of this chair. This base is further reinforced with a curved Aluminium strap.

*Don't forget all our chairs are fully customisable when it comes to the frame and fabric!

LUMBAR SUPPORT

MOULDED
FOAM END

Many people prefer a chair that features a back with increased support. The Ergo Comfort Chair combines moulded foam with a lumbar support located at the bottom of the seat back, making the chair uniquely different from others in the marketplace.

The seat on this chair is not only moulded for greater comfort, but it rolls further forward to provide additional support to the back of the user's legs. A very attractive chair overall.

ROLLED LEG SUPPORT

NEXUS

Our Nexus Chair is one of the most attractive Banqueting/ Conferencing Chairs to be launched on the Irish market.

Ergonomically designed with comfort in mind, the flex-plate incorporated into the chair structure allows for greater movement and flexibility in the chair back and allows for a much-improved user experience.

Aimed at the mid to upper end of the Banqueting Chair market, the Nexus enjoys unparalleled aesthetic appeal with its aluminium-trimmed back, shaped seat, curved hand-grip and cornerless aluminium legs.

Stackable and customisable, the Nexus Chair is difficult to surpass and sure to be top in its class.

COMPOSE A SENSATIONAL STATEMENT

The last decade has witnessed an array of wedding trends, with the ever-changing landscape evolving drastically over time. Trends have surpassed the classic, all-white bridal features, with a substantial focus now shifting towards the architectural interior and design elements engulfing a room.

As this vast and varying landscape continues to change, there exists a requirement for wedding essentials, such as chairs, to also adapt and develop alongside these dynamic trends.

Wedding chairs have the power to seize the moment; inexcusably demanding a significant presence within any room. In virtue of this, choosing the correct chair ultimately determines the overall theme of the wedding in more ways than one.

With a long-standing history of leading the hospitality sector through multiple decades of innovation, Bunzl McLaughlin has created the Compose Chair Collection, enabling the encompassing industry to become immersed in the importance of wedding chairs, allowing the sector to intrinsically implement such an adorned statement.

Compose Contemporary Chair;

The name Compose was born out of a concept to create. Bunzl McLaughlin has introduced this innate offering to provide the industry with the momentum required to waltz alongside the wilful movements of the wedding arena.

Wedding chairs are often the subject of consistent reinvention and have taken many forms over the years. The Chiavari Chair is a perfect example. The origins of this chair date back to more than 200 years and originated in the town of Chiavari in the Genoa region of Northern Italy. Although the style has moulded over time to align with capricious trends, a distinct likeness to the original still exists.

However, as the style of wedding chairs alter over time and certain characteristics become clutched as the contemporary new trend, other factors aside from visual aesthetics need to be considered. The Chiavari Chair in particular has attracted criticism due to the level of comfort it offers. The wooden frame lacks a substantial degree of durability, detracting from the desired and practical feature of stackability.

Pertaining to this, the Compose Chair Collection has created a bespoke solution, maximising the potential of this chair.

Attributed as one of the most significant adaptations within the marketplace in the last decade, Bunzl McLaughlin has reinvented the Chiavari Chair, replacing the wooden frame with a lightweight aluminium frame, uniting an unprecedented wood-effect finish to mirror its wooden counterpart.

In addition, the enduring new frame enables venues to stack and store the chairs in a much more efficient manner, while customisable seat pads endeavour to solve an abundance of comfort concerns.

With the classic Chiavari reborn, this time with an innovative slant to accommodate its audience, Compose has succeeded in creating a flourishing range of wedding chairs, each encouraging bespoke alteration.

Hosting a collection of four pivotal chairs to choose from, over 100 fabric and leatherette options, amassed with 14 exclusive frame colours and the choice of a wood-effect finish on a robust aluminium frame, Compose has revealed a tailor-made solution, enabling any establishment to create a breath-taking centrepiece, effortlessly tying together the theme of the day.

The modern wedding has become less about tradition and more about achieving a tailored look that amplifies an illustrious identity. The year ahead will see an unrivalled level of maturity making its debut, where couples are already well-versed in regard to their own taste.

Creating a venue that immediately captivates and converts the audience is of utmost priority. Composing the perfect wedding chair, will not only heighten the instantaneous level of eternal guest appreciation, it has the ability to place any venue to the very top of a capacious bridal checklist.

The Brief

Bunzl McLaughlin were tasked to create a truly bespoke wedding chair that not only complimented Bloomfield's elegant and tastefully decorated wedding suites, but added to their overall ambience of luxury and warmth.

The Solution

With a tradition of excellence, it was essential to Bloomfield House Hotel to compose a bespoke wedding chair that not only oozed elegance but could also endure the day-to-day running required to uphold four decades of truly wonderful weddings.

With this in mind, Bunzl McLaughlin introduced The Wedding Collection. Hosting a range of four pivotal chairs, over 100 fabric and leatherette options and 14 exclusive frame finishes, this collection offered Bloomfield House the possibility of choice and customisation to craft their own bespoke wedding chair, intricately matching their existing décor and their own personal brand. After screening dozens of fabric and leatherette options featured within the Compose Collection, Bloomfield House Hotel chose to create a wedding chair that featured a dark leatherette fabric and wipeable surface.

Renowned for its excellent service, their strong emphasis on customer satisfaction and terrific bridal atmosphere, Bloomfield House Hotel sought to add a signature feature to their bespoke chair that captivated guests as they entered the room. For this, they chose to create a distinctive back design printed on a lighter fabric that enlivened the room and enhanced the feel of luxury and warmth.

Creating a venue that immediately enchants guests is a must and can be achieved by composing the perfect wedding chair. In an era where wedding trends are constantly changing and adapting, it is vital for hoteliers to stay ahead of the game and offer every newly engaged couple a customised experience that will put your venue at the top of every wedding checklist.
